

Kitchen Challenge?

Mini-makeovers on a Shoestring

On The Decorating Challenge, I always look for ways to create the biggest impact, for the least amount of money. Besides who has money for expensive renovations after the holidays? Here are 3 of my favourite tricks for an inexpensive, mid-winter kitchen makeover:

The Decorating Challenge

- Changing cabinet hardware instantly and economically updates your cabinets.
- Adding a backsplash brightens things up and provides function too.
- Changing flooring, using the growing selection of inexpensive Peel 'n Sticks to laminates, will redefine your kitchen.

Keeping your kitchen clean is the easiest way to keep it looking refreshed! Nothing's up to the challenge like Bounty Paper Towels and Swiffer WetJet.

Refresh with a "cleaner kitchen" makeover...

with

- Remove tough, dried messes easily with Swiffer WetJet's nonabrasive scrubbing head
- Clean kitchen floors often to remove particles that can grind in, scratch the surface and reduce the natural sheen.
- Clean stains when they happen. This helps you avoid damaging floor finishes by having to scour dried gritty stains.

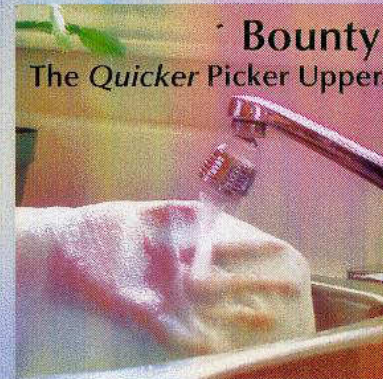

with

- Bounty is stronger when wet than other leading paper towels.* Before you clean wet it with water or a cleanser
- Scrub away stubborn sink, cabinet and baseboard stains and marks
- Clean up the grime on backsplash tile and grout
- Line plastic boot mats with Bounty to make clean up easy!

Up to the Challenge of keeping your house Clean?

Just like at home, life on TV can get pretty messy, especially on shows like The Decorating Challenge. That's why they rely on Bounty and Swiffer WetJet to get the job done. You can too!
